

ICS Automation AG

Company presentation

Company

ICS Automation AG – your partner for efficient, economical and reliable process and machine automation for the food and non-food industry with worldwide references.

Automation Systems

Highly trained and motivated engineers and technicians ensure your success from small projects to complex solutions. Many years of experience combined with technology and process expertise guarantees among other things:

- Automation systems tailored to your needs
- Optimized processes
- Transparent data management
- Improved process control from goods intake to delivery
- Customized reports
- Easy to use
- Integration in the overall enterprise
- Cost optimized and scalable retrofit solutions with minimal shut downs

Competences

Our professional services as an independent system integrator include among other things:

- Analysis of your requirements and existing systems
- Development of specifications
- Coordination with your process and machine suppliers
- Competent advise
- Project management
- Creating concepts and evaluating alternatives
- Define and implement interfaces
- Development of standardised modules
- Engineering for PLC software, drive technology, visualisation, hardware und installation design as well as for process control systems (recipe handling, job control, process and production data in real time)
- Systems for the product traceability
- Links to ERP systems
- Cooperation with competent companies for the panel build and the electrical installation
- Life cycle support through training, documentation, 24/7 support, remote diagnostics
- Overall responsibility for your automation systems

ICS Automation AG

ICS Automation AG
Wattstrasse 14
CH-9240 Uzwil

Phone +41 71 955 04 50
Fax +41 71 955 04 59
info@ics-automation.com
www.ics-automation.com

We are only satisfied when our customers recommend us spontaneously!

Partnership

The close cooperation with the customer throughout the project, rigorous testing of the software by means of simulation and pre-acceptance by the customer enable efficient commissioning and the achievement of the quality objectives. The lived partnership with the customer is a key factor for project success and the achievement of common goals.

